

Do not let the powerful interests and radio stifle competition. Denying satellite radio the opportunity to offer services that benefits its subscribers is unAmerican. I am a satellite radio subscriber and traffic and weather can save me, and America, time and money by having access to this information without having to search local radio while driving. It can also save lives by taking a distraction away from drivers. I will be watching this issue and it will influence my faith in government.